Dear,

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 23/03/2016.

I note you seek access to the following information:

I would like to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act.

For each financial year since the position was created how much has the Office of Police and Crime Commissioner had to pay out in fines as a result of parking tickets issued to company cars?

If my request is denied in whole or in part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the Act. I will also expect you to release all non-exempt material. I reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information or to charge excessive fees.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

No information held – any parking tickets incurred by either Leicestershire Police or OPCC staff would be paid by the staff member concerned and would not be paid for by the relevant organisation.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Professional Standards Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely
