Dear

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your freedom of information request received on 18 December 2022. I note you seek access to the following information:

Dear Leicestershire Police and Crime Commissioner, you run a Twitter account you describe as personal, despite heavy references to your role as PCC. You almost always include a photo of yourself taken by a someone else. Please confirm that none of these photos incur any cost whatsoever to the taxpayer i.e. that you wholly fund any costs yourself

Your request for information has now been considered and the response can be found below:

None of the photos incur any cost to the taxpayer except for the cost of equipment to take the photos, namely a selfie stick purchased by the OPCC for the use of the whole office, costing £12.63.

The Police and Crime Commissioner's Office provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Data Protection Officer at the above address or emailed to OPCC@leics.police.uk. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Police and Crime Commissioner's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely,

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner
