Dear

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your freedom of information request received on 29 December 2023. I note you seek access to the following information:

Please provide me with the following information for the financial years 2020/21, 2021/22, 2022/23.

All expenditure made by your organisation, in every facet of its operations and purview, on translation, interpretation, and language services.

Please provide the aggregated total spent by your organisation and then, if possible, please provide this broken down by particular function for which the service was carried out.

Your request for information has now been considered and the response can be found below:

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner has not incurred any costs for translation, interpretation, or language services in the last 3 financial years.

All information related to expenditure for such services can be found on the over £500 report available on the Leicestershire Police website; Published items | Leicestershire Police \(leics.police.uk\)

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Data Protection Officer at the above address or emailed to OPCC@leics.police.uk. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Police and Crime Commissioner's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner
