Executive Summary

This Police and Crime Plan (the Plan) covers the whole of my term in office but is a living document that is reviewed and considered against emerging threats and opportunities. I will re-issue it on a yearly basis to capture changing priorities.

The two key strands that were considered in the development of this plan are:

1. Setting the strategic direction and accountability for policing and partnerships; and
2. Contributing to resourcing of policing response to regional and national threats.

Setting the strategic direction and accountability for policing and partnerships

In my manifesto I made clear the issues and priorities that would enable police and partners to drive down crime. These priorities are placed within four key themes:

1. Reducing Offending and Reoffending
2. Supporting Victims and Witnesses
3. Making Communities and Neighbourhoods Safer
4. Protecting the Vulnerable

Strategic priorities set out in each of the themes are based on comprehensive research and analysis provided by police and partners and also commissioned on my behalf. Details of these data sources are described in 'Police and Crime Plan Data Sources' available on the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC) website: <http://bit.ly/16xT7ai>

I have conducted community consultation and engagement to make sure that emerging concerns are captured and inform the Plan.

The Plan accepts that levels of crime and anti-social behaviour change throughout the year and are dependent on a range of influences. This means emerging threats can be added to the Plan and threats that have been mitigated or are no longer a priority can be taken out.

It allows for the changing economic forecast to be assessed and plans to be drawn up to meet austerity measures through to the financial year 2016/17 and beyond, as announced in the Chancellor's Autumn Statement (2012).

The core values of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership will shape the way in which I will act, make decisions, deploy resources, invest public money and engage with the Chief Constable and key partners for the purpose of ensuring the achievement of this Police and Crime Plan.

The statutory responsibilities and goodwill of all our partners enables this Plan to be delivered. The core responsibilities held by partners are detailed in 'The Statutory Responsibilities of Partners' document available on the OPCC website: <http://bit.ly/HhbLgN>

The confidence and trust of victims and witnesses to seek the help of the police, and their experiences when they do so, is a golden thread throughout this Plan.

I have purposely chosen measures of success that are meaningful and transparent, so performance is not restricted to achievement against targets on crime or disorder reduction, but more specifically on meeting the needs of victims. The methodology used to set the targets is detailed in 'The Positive Outcome Rate and Target Setting' document available on the OPCC website: <http://bit.ly/1adN8K6>

I will hold routine and regular local meetings throughout my term of office so that I can listen to the concerns of local residents and address their priorities.

Contributing to regional and national threats

The Home Secretary's Strategic Policing Requirement recognises that police services need to work cooperatively across boundaries to plan for, and deliver, effective capabilities to tackle threats that stretch from local to national level.

This response is embedded in specialist and local policing. These threats (such as terrorism, organised crime, public disorder and civil emergencies) can spread across the country quickly and dynamically, as witnessed in the disturbances in Summer 2011.

This Plan sets out how Leicestershire Police will deliver the Strategic Policing Requirement (SPR), which includes:

- Responding to public protest and policing large events
- Serious and organised crime
- Counter terrorism
- Civil contingencies and local resilience

I will work with the Chief Constable alongside local and regional partners to ensure robust management and response to these threats.

Commissioning

The Commissioning Framework has taken the strategic priorities contained within the Police and Crime Plan and combined them into four Commissioning Themes. Each theme has its own Commissioning Plan and associated purchasing systems i.e. the mechanisms through which I will allocate the funds within a specific process.

I will continue to monitor progress for each commissioned activity against the proposed improved outcomes, a range of performance approaches has been developed to support this. The OPCC will continue to work with partners and providers to develop a suite of performance indicators and measures that can be easily managed and reported on.

Commissioning intentions published in June 2013 describe the commissioning arrangements planned with the partnerships and strategic boards. These can be found on the PCC website at the following address: www.leics.pcc.police.uk/Document-Library/Planning-and-Money/Commissioning/CommissioningIntentionsFull.pdf

The financial challenge

The 'Leicestershire Police Strategy for Change' sets out the following strategic objective:

With our staff and partners, transform the way we protect our communities and deliver over £20million in revenue savings by 2016.

From this the strategic priorities below have been set:

- A vision for Leicestershire Police that is radical, challenging and will deliver the policing priorities set out in the Plan within the resources available;
- Evidence-based business cases for change, developed from and based on current project mandates and options under consideration; and
- Implementation of options approved through the Leicestershire Police Change Board.

Working with the Chief Constable, I will ensure an efficient and effective police service, where resources are focussed, configured and used in such a way as to provide the best possible value for money. Critically in this, I look to and indeed expect the Chief Constable to encourage, recognise, reward and spread excellence throughout Leicestershire Police.

You can read more about the Change Programme and the Medium Term Financial Strategy in 'Leicestershire Police - The Financial Challenge' document available on the OPCC website:
